

Forbes House Museum Annual Meeting
Thursday, 17 October 2013, 7pm

Program

Welcome by Mary M. Wendell, Chair, Board of Trustees

Treasurer's Report, Eugene J. Sullivan, Treasurer

Release of the New FHM Logo, David C. Howse, Trustee

Executive Director Presentation, Robin M. Tagliaferri
Collections Care & Cataloging

On-line Exhibit of the Forbes- Millet Chinese Book Collection, with Jeffrey Erickson, Simmons College Great Famine Partnership with University College Cork, Ireland and the Charitable Irish Society of Boston

Presentation of a Milton 350th Anniversary Celebration Commemorative Plate by Beth Neville, Milton 350th Committee Member

Honorary Tribute to Anne and George Thompson

The FHM will honor Anne and George for their decades of service to the Museum in support of our Lincoln and Civil War programs, and acknowledge Anne's dedicated work to catalog and care for the permanent collection, including the rescue and conservation of the 1924 reel tape of Mary Bowditch Forbes's G.A.R. ceremony.

Guest Speaker, Patrick Lui, Filmmaker

Renowned Chinese filmmaker, Patrick Lui, producer of the 1985 BBC documentary, Heart of the Dragon, will speak on his plans for a new documentary, A Tale of Tea Cities, and give an overview of his environmental organization, the Green Great Wall Foundation. Mr. Lui will be accompanied by Ms. Fiona Zheng, tea scholar, researcher and Associate Professor at Fuzhou University, Fuzhou, China. A tea ceremony will be performed by Ms. Zhao Xuan Ph.D., researcher at Brown University.

Reception immediately following.