I hereby present to you, Team 323, our classroom's first ever newspaper. This paper will be written for you, by you, using information that you have discovered, topics that you choose to research, and amazing news you find from around Milton and the world.

How will it work? Each Friday a student will be assigned to write each section. You will have a week to write and create your page in the newspaper. Be creative!

Insert images, go on wild goose chases to find new and interesting stories to report on, add links to great content, and make your section your own! Your final article is due at 6pm on Thursday evening. I will edit and review all content before 2pm on Friday to ensure that it is ready to publish. At our whole class meeting on Friday, you will be able to present your finished report. Your classmates will be able to read and enjoy the newspaper all weekend long! ★ Click here to sign up now!

Pro-Sports Update & Local Sports News

Hello! As we know, all pro-sports are postponed. But the NHL is still making an effort to help hockey fans get through this. On <https://www.nhl.com/> they have videos of NHL players and fans thanking front line workers. Then are is also videos of highlights and what players are doing at home. I really hope we have a Stanley Cup playoffs this year. There was some talk of hockey coming back in places like New Hampshire because there are not many cases there. I think this is a great idea. Other things that are upcoming in sports →

There are some great golf matches coming up. Phil Mickelson is playing with Tom Brady and they're playing Tiger Woods and Peyton Manning. All of the money they raise will go to COVID-19 relief.

Now for some Local Sports: Milton American Baseball might happen this season. I am hoping that it happens. I think Milton hockey tryouts will be held sometime during the summer. My predictions for this years sports winners for NBA is that I think the Bucs will win. And last, for NHL I think the Bruins will win. And that is all for this week!

Nkatie Cake or Peanut Cake Recipe

My mom makes this recipe called Nkatie cake (or peanut cake). This is kind of like a hard bar. These are just snacks but could be for special occasions like Thanksgiving. I really enjoy this. All you need is:

Ingredients

3 cups of peanuts

1 cup of sugar

Try it!

DIRECTIONS

1. Spread the peanuts and crush them with a rolling pin.
2. Put the sugar into a pot and leave it to melt down.
3. Add the crushed peanuts to the melted sugar in the pot
4. Stir without stopping for 2 minutes
5. After the 2 minutes, pour it on a clean surface and roll it with a rolling pin.
6. Quickly cut it into any shape you want before it hardens
7. Wait for it to cool and serve

Same Weather,
No Change (:

Weather in Milton has been at a constant temperature of a high 60-65 and a low of 45-55. These temperatures are the best temperatures we have had for a while so go outside and go on a bike ride, a run, or even just sit outside and enjoy the weather until it rains and we are stuck inside again.

Weather in Milton

The weather in Milton has been mostly made up of sunshine and cloudy days. I suggest you go outside and play soon it will rain again and you will be bored in your house once more.

Touching: Equestrians visit Milton Senior Living

Separated by a window to avoid exposure to COVID-19, a Milton Senior Living resident smiles and waves as Cricket Jewett and her horse, "Ice," stop for a visit. Jewett and Ice were joined by seven equestrians (equestrians are horseback riders) and Hoo's Woods owner Dianne Moller on Thursday, April 30. After assembling the group at Milton West Elementary School, rode to the senior living facility at 600 W. Sunset drive, and paraded around the facility stopping at widows to visit residents.

Also, celebrating his birthday Thursday, April 30th, Albert Lima (a 95 year-old resident) said horses were a part of his life when he was young. He visited with Ernie the Tennessee Walking Horse, and entertained the equine (horse) with soothing bird calls.

Cinco de Mayo

Do you celebrate with Mexican food on the fifth of May every year? Or are you wondering what I'm talking about? Well, either way, you're in luck, because this article is about Cinco de Mayo. Cinco de Mayo literally means "Fifth of May" in Spanish. Although it is not a federal holiday in the United States (meaning banks and businesses stay open), this holiday is seen as or interpreted as a day to celebrate Mexican culture, and many people eat delicious food such as tacos and lasagna. Yum!

Cinco de Mayo celebrates the Mexicans' victory in the Battle of Puebla, when 6,000 French troops set out to attack the small town of Puebla. There were only 2,000 loyal Mexicans fighting against the French, which is why this small battle was so important for them to win.

The victory in Puebla kept the Mexican troops motivated, even though they were poorly supplied and hugely outnumbered. So, now you know some Cinco de Mayo facts!

One Thing The Same

In these times, everything seems to be changing. So I went and found something that wasn't. Antarctica has been at a steady -73 Fahrenheit for several days. In the spring! And it gets colder.

This month, it dropped to as low as -83 Fahrenheit. And it's warmest was -19! I don't know about you, but I wouldn't want to live there!

Weather In Antarctica

The weather in Antarctica is always below 0. Always. And snowy, snowy, snooooooooooooooooooooow. The above panels show the view from a weather outpost close to the South Pole for 5 days in a row.

Review: A Hole New World

Need a book to read? This graphic novel is really funny and adventurous. This book has characters like zombies, Evil Jen, Cloud, Carter, Captain Cookie, Mr. Rainbow and even more.

Check this book out! →

Rating:

I give this book a 4 star rating because the original characters in this book were created in Minecraft. Also, this book gave me ideas for what to read next. This book is action-packed and enjoyable.
