Children, ages 3-6 - Keep your explanations simple (two or three sentences). Limit exposure to conversations with older siblings if possible. Speak calmly and continue with routines. Good news.... if they have always felt safe in their home and community, they will ‘assume’ that you will continue to keep them safe.