The Milton Public Library is thrilled to bring you its first ever cross-generational (kids and adults) Flamenco program! Eve Costarelli of, Always Be Dancing, will bring her dynamic program to the library this February. This program will take place on February 15 @ 2:30 PM in the Keys room. Pairs must register in advance as: child/caregiver or adult/adult. Please register each name in your pair. This program is for ages 8+. We require each child to register with their own adult caregiver.

Eve is a vibrant teacher who brings a refreshing and therapeutic approach to her workshops and performances. She adapts her programs to meet the needs of students with a range of experiences and abilities, and independently develops and teaches youth programs and classes in flamenco, rhythm tap and yoga for children of all ages and abilities. Eve teaches flamenco programs and workshops which promote the understanding and appreciation of authentic flamenco dance, Spanish culture and the multi-cultural background of the art form.

This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Milton Public Library
