Questions students came up with...
1. What inspired you to write this series?
2. What does the research process look like when you are writing a book for the series?
3. Do you feel strong emotions when writing these books?
4. Which book did you enjoy writing the most?
5. What book are you currently working on?
6. Have you ever thought about writing a different genre?
7. Did you enjoy writing when you were a child? Did you always want to be an author?
8. What advice do you have for young writers or students who do not particularly enjoy writing?