

The Forbes House Museum is hosting a Holiday Open House on Saturday, December 16th, from 11:00am to 3:00pm.

Enjoy festive decorations - including a Forbes House made out of gingerbread, donated by Montilio's Baking Company, and a classic Charles Dickens Village display.

There will also be crafts for the young and young-at-heart, a family scavenger hunt inside the mansion, holiday stories told by candlelight inside the Lincoln Cabin, and hot cocoa and treats. The cost is $5/person, $20 maximum/family, and free for members.
