

Prospective Member Night to be hosted by MJWC on Oct. 12

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

By Kathy Keyes, special to the Times

MILTON MA//September 10, 2018// – Milton women are invited by the Milton Junior Woman's Club to attend the New & Prospective Member Open House on Friday, October 12, 2018 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Widomaker Brewing, 222 Wood Road, Braintree, MA. The $20 fee at the door covers light appetizers and a free beer. Also available will be food provided by Mangia food truck. While the night is focused on welcoming new and prospective members, current members are welcomed to attend. Partners and spouses are welcomed to attend also.

Co-president Jen McNulty notes that this is her favorite event of the year. "As a long-time member of the Milton Junior Woman's Club, the Open House event is always a favorite night of mine. It is so fun to reconnect with members I haven't seen while during the club's summer hiatus." She added, "I love welcoming new and prospective members and letting them know what the club does with and for our town."

Prospective members will have the opportunity to learn about all planned programs and events that will be sponsored by the club for its upcoming year, hear about the club's charitable accomplishments and get a sneak-peak of new programs.

If you know anyone who is interested in joining the Milton Junior Woman's Club, please bring them along to this event. To RSVP, or for more information, please send inquiries to info@miltonjuniorwomansclub.com.

The Milton Junior Woman's Club is a civic organization that was founded on October 14, 1912. The club's largest fundraiser is the annual Milton Road Race which helps fund scholarships awarded to Milton students graduating high school and charitable grants to organizations that benefit Milton residents.

The club's mission is to make a difference in the Milton community through volunteer efforts while providing a social network and opportunities for women to connect and expand their friendships.

###