

Fashion Design II Unleveled 736

Prerequisite Course: Fashion Design I

This course will build on previous skills for the student who is interested in the Fashion and Interior Design Industry. Students will explore various aspects of the principles of design, influences of fashion trends, marketing techniques and advanced apparel construction techniques. The course is enhanced through lab work, guest speakers and computer labs.