

Fall 2018 ASE Limited Enrollment Classes

The following classes are open to ASE participants only.

Unless otherwise noted, register for these classes at your ASE program, Sept. 17-18 from 4:00-6:00pm. Special Classes begin the first week of October.

Gymnastics

Experienced, professional instructors teach students routines involved in Vaulting, Tumbling, on Bars and on the Balance Beam. They will also practice locomotive skills for the development and improvement of general coordination. Mastering physical skills helps develop self-confidence and independence. Classes will have an 8:1 student-to-instructor ratio. Co/Cu Mon, Glover Tues, Tucker Fri

StagePlay and ShowTime

Picture a super-imaginative program of outside-the-box theatre games, cool music, and lots of role-play. Jim Moonan, musician, children's music songwriter/storyteller, and owner of NorthWind Education teaches this unique class. He also works in Needham and Newton public schools and performing arts centers in Greater Boston. The session concludes with a family & friends performance including makeup, props and scenery. Children learn the true meaning of "all for one and one for all" as they plan, practice, and perform their own show where all talent is worthy of a standing ovation. Collicot/Cunningham
